The Norfolk Landmark and the Savannah Press are having words about "the old time kitchen." Sorry, but we are not old enough to act as arbiter in a dispute over ancient reminiscences which some editors insist on relating.

President Roosevelt declares that we must have a big navy because Togo overwhelmed Rojestvensky's fleet. If the Russian fleet had sunk the Japanese fleet it would have been another reason why we should have a navy second to none.

Some Mexican women have organized an anti-kissing society. You may think this is very foolish, but their rules only forbid the kissing of one woman by another, which, as a matter of fact, is really nothing but a counterfeit of the genuine article.

Mrs. Helen Lease who was held up and robbed in her New York flat says she would not prosecute the burglars if they were arrested, because the tyrany of society has made them what they are. Talk like that is not going to make the robbers release what they took from Helen Lease.

Admiral Birileff is a statesman wihout much of a job. He was appointed chief in command of all of Russia's naval forces and was hurried off by rail to Vladivostok to be there by the time Vice Admiral Rojestvensky was to have reached there with his armada. Admiral Birileff would be called by an Indian Admiral Gotleft.

After the Russians got thrashed at Mukden the Czar proclaimed religious liberty. Togo's annihilation of the Russian fleet moved the Czar to summons a representative assembly of the people, and if this is not enough to make the Russian fighters keep on getting licked with the hope that further humiliation will make the Czar grant them liberty, we don't know what we are writing about.

JAMES W. JACKSON, JUNIOR.

Under Death of Young Man Greatly Beloved in the Community—Funeral This Afternoon.

Library of Congress

The sympathy of the community is poured out to the grief-stricken parents, while hundreds of friends in this city and elsewhere throughout Eastern North Carolina are saddened, and will feel a personal loss in the death of Mr. James William Jackson, Jr., second son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. Jackson, of this city, which occurred at 10:50 o'clock yesterday morning at the family residence, No. 310 South Fourth streets, after an illness of four weeks with typhoid fever and complications. Young Mr. Jackson was travelling representative for the Wilmington Messenger, of which his father and uncle, Messrs. Jackson and Bell, are proprietors, and came home from a trip on the road feeling unwell. He remained in the office, however, for a day or two, but was at length compelled to go home where he gradually grew worse, despite the most tender nursing and best medical attention, until death came to relieve a brave young man of his suffering.

Mr. Jackson was born and reared in this city, and would have been 25 years of age next Fall. For a number of years he was employed in the auditing department of the A. C. L., but resigned a little over a year ago to assist his father on the paper. He was a young man of most exemplary habits, gentle as a lady, yet brave as a lion; a true friend and a devoted son. His loss among the sturdy young men of the community will be keenly felt.

Besides his parents, Mr. Jackson leaves two brothers, Messrs. Benjamin B. and George C. Jackson and three sisters, Misses Sallie Belle, Eloise and Jennie Jackson to mourn their loss.

Mr. Jackson was a zealous and valued member of the Wilmington Light Infantry being a sergeant of that command. Among his comrades yesterday the keenest sorrow was felt at his untimely demise and immediately upon his death, the flag over the armory was lowered to half-mast. The company is called to assemble at 3 o'clock this afternoon for the purpose of attending the funeral, which will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon from the First Presbyterian church.

LOCAL DOTS.

—Other local on fourth page.

—In the future the Fayetteville train will leave the city daily at 9:10 A. M. instead of 8:50 A. M. as formerly.

—The Dorcas Society will meet Thursday at 4 P. M. in Luther Memorial Building. A full attendance is desired.

—Services at First Church of Christ, Scientist, this evening at 8:15 o'clock, Odd Fellow's building, second floor. All are invited.

—Dewberries are now going forward from the trucking section and are bringing from 8 to 12 cents per quart in New York and Philadelphia.

—A building permit was applied for yesterday for the building of a six-room, shingle-roof cottage on an alley between Dock and Orange and Ninth and Tenth streets; for Mrs. T. J. Pae.

—The local cotton market went off an eighth yesterday having been quoted steady at 8 cents. New York spot was quiet yesterday at 8.40. Local receipts 238 bales against 41 bales same day last season.

—Chairman Rathjen, of the Fire Committee, has had the alarm boxes all over the city painted a pretty, deep red, making them easily distinguishable and adding considerably to their appearance.

—Chairman O'Brien and Supt. Pickett have put a force to work laying the Belgian block on Red Cross street, between Front and Water streets. As soon as the terra cotta pipes for the drains under the paving arrives, the work will be pushed rapidly.

—Complaint is made of boys bathing in the docks at Nun and Church streets, which is a strict violation of the law and a great danger to the youngsters. Only yesterday afternoon one of them fell into the river and narrowly escaped drowning.

—The Ladies' Aid Society of Brooklyn Baptist church gave a delighful excursion to Carolina Beach yesterday. On account of some trivial disarrangement of the steamer's machinery an hour's delay was experienced on the return, but everybody had a good time.

—The News and Observer of yesterday speaks in glowing terms of the annual Missionary sermon preached by Rev. Fred D. Hale, D. D., pastor of the First Baptist church of Wilmington, Sunday night at the commencement exercises of the Baptist University for Women in Raleigh.

—The funeral of Gerald S. Carney, infant son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Carney, of Newbern, was conducted from the residence of Mrs. A. M. Schulken, Fourth and Nixon streets, at 10.30 o'clock yesterday morning, Rev. C. W. Kegley, assisted by Rev. W. A. Snyder, officiating. The remains of the little one were tenderly laid to rest in Oakdale cemetery.

—The Fayetteville Observer of yesterday afternoon announces the death of Mrs. J. F. L. Armfield, a most estimable woman of that city and a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. McLean, of Maxton. The remains were taken to Maxton yesterday afternoon for interment. The funeral will be conducted from the Presbyterian church in Maxton by Dr. Hill at 11 o'clock this morning.

MUNICIPAL AFFAIRS

Board of Audit and Finance in Regular Semi-Monthly Session Last Night

COMFORT FOR EXCURSIONISTS

Appropriation of $250 Made for Temporary Building on Front Street—Paving Contract—Question of Salaries—Bills Audited.

The Board of Audit and Finance in regular monthly session last night, audited a large number of bills for current expenses and passed upon the several matters sent over by the Board of Aldermen at its meeting the night before. In the absence of Chairman McQueen, who sailed yesterday for a two month's tour abroad, Mr. C. W. Yates presided as chairman and all other members were present, viz: Messrs. Jesse Wilder, S. P. McNair and J. A. Orrell.

Perhaps the most important action of the Board at the meeting, was approval of an appropriation of the Aldermen to provide suitable public comforts and conveniences for the large number of excursionists who visit the city every Summer, the need of such comforts and conveniences having been the subject of remark for several seasons past. Mr. W. A. French, Jr., spokesman for the Wilmington Merchants' Association Committee, appeared before the Board and stated that it had been decided to use the vacant lot on North Front street, so kindly tendered by Messrs. J. W. Murchison & Co. and Messrs. J. H. Rehder & Co., and that $250 would be all that would be necessary for the erection of a suitable structure and its equipment. The Board very cheerfully concurred in an appropriation of that amount, the work of building to begin immediately under the supervision of the Public Building Committee of the Board of Aldermen and the committee of business men.

The proposed amendment passed by the Board of Aldermen the night before, putting dealers in bottled beer upon an equal footing as to taxation with bottlers of beer, the business being similar, was referred back to the Aldermen for a slight change in wording, which, however, does not change the general effect of the ordinance. Where it is stated that dealers in less than wholesale quantities be required to pay the same tax as "on retail malt liquor dealers," it was suggested that the wording be the "same as bar keepers," as there is no specific tax placed separately on retail malt liquor dealers.

Award of contract to the City Livery Co., for care of city teams, was approved.

Award of the contract to Roger Moore for the North Fourth streets paving was approved, subject to an examination by, and the City Attorney's opinion as to the legality of the instrument. It was also made a proviso of the contract that the work of paving the street be not undertaken until abutting property owners pay in advance the pro rata share of the cost of the improvement, which, according to the new law, is the difference between macadam pavement and vitrified brick.

Award of the contract to J. W. Capps for furnishing and caring for the city oil lights was approved. The extra appropriation of $30 for the installation of a new arc light at Fifteenth and Market streets was not approved, the Board taking the view that the company should install the light without cost.

No action was deemed necessary in the granting of the Red Men privilege to hold a carnival in the city. No action was also taken upon the further request of the Aldermen that the salary of the Superintendent of Health be increased from $800 to $1,000.

Bond of T. D. Love in the sum of $100 for furnishing terra cotta pipe to the city was approved.

In connection with the pay-roll of some officers who were changed at the beginning of the new administration, the interesting question arose as to whether the terms of office of successors began when they actually took charge or when the successors filed their bonds. There was a day or two point of difference in the case of Chief of Police and some time in the case of the Superintendent of Streets and City Clerk and Treasurer, although the latter was retained several days acquainting his successor with the office. The Board of Audit and Finance decided to postpone approval of the bills until the differences are settled between the officers themselves.

ROAD ELECTION TO-DAY.

Question of $50,000 Bonds for Continuing Permanent Improvement.

The polls for the election upon the question of an additional $50,000 for continuing the permanent road improvement of New Hanover are open to-day in all the wards and precincts of the county from 6 A. M. to 6 P. M. and all those who have registered and are in favor of continuing the work are urged to vote. It is a question of vital importance to everyone interested in a "greater" Wilmington, and a full registered vote should be cast.

On account of the election the saloons of the city closed at 6 P. M. yesterday and will not open until 6 A. M. to-morrow morning.

MASONS AND GUTHRIE HELD

Young White Men Charged With Hold-Up Saturday Night Committed in Default of $1,000 Bonds.

Bonds in the sum of $1,000 each, justified, were required of Joe and Jessie Mason and Will Guthrie, young white men of this city, who were arraigned before Mayor Waddell in the police court yesterday at noon upon a charge of an assault with a deadly weapon with intent to rob, the prosecuting witness being Mr. George R. Smith, whom, it is alleged, the trio held-up at the point of revolvers on the East Wilmington road Saturday night the particulars of which have been given. Neither of the three could furnish the bail required and were committed to jail to await trial at the term of New Hanover Superior Court, beginning June 26th.

The prisoners were represented at the preliminary trial by Messrs. Herbert McClammy and Marsden Bellamy and introduced no witnesses. They presented a very dejected appearance in the prisoners box and listened intently to the story of the hold-up as graphically pictured by Mr. Smith and his little son, James Luther, 15 years old, who was with his father in the buggy when the fussilade of shots were exchanged. Although a number of other witnesses were present for the State, including Frank and Henry Loftin and Bud Miller, colored cart drivers, who were held up about the same place a short time before Mr. Smith came along, it was deemed unnecessary to put them on the stand and they, with a large number of others, were only recognized for their appearance at the trial in the Superior Court.

Soon after the trial before the Mayor was concluded the three young men were served with warrants sworn out in Justice Furlong's court by Dave Nixon and John James, colored, charging all three with highway robbery, straight out, the charge in Mr. Smith's case having been only an attempt at highway robbery. The colored market men on the Sound, who have been terrified by the series of hold-ups on the road while returning from the city late Saturday nights for several weeks have employed William J. Bellamy, Esq., to prosecute the cases. The preliminary trial in Justice Furlong's court will be held Saturday at noon.

"ACROSS THE POND."

Distinguished Wilmington Party Sailed for Liverpool Yesterday.

A distinguished party of Wilmingtonians, including Mr. H. C. McQueen, Mrs. J. W. Murchison, Mr. B. F. Hall, Mr. I. J. Bear and Mr. Joe Murchison, son of Mr. J. W. Murchison, sailed yesterday morning on the handsome new British steamer Cayo Manzanillo, Capt. Winter, which sailed at 7 o'clock with a large cargo of cotton for Liverpool, Eng. The party will be away about two months and will probably return via New York. A large party of ladies and gentlemen bade the gentlemen good-bye at the wharf while others accompanied them down the river, returning on the steamers Blanche and Marion.

The party on the Blanche accompanied the steamer out as far as the bell boay and the trip was given by Mr. M. J. Corbett, president of the Wilmington, Southport and Little River Transportation Company, in honor of Mr. McQueen. In the party were Misses Sue and Agnes McQueen, Miss Jennie Murchison, Miss Peck, Mr. J. C. Stevenson, Mr. M. W. Divine, Mr. R. R. Stone and Mr. Corbett. The party disembarked from the large steamer at Southport and took the Blanche for the trip out to sea. Before leaving the ship, Mr. Jas. C. Stevenson, in behalf of Mr. Corbett and some of his guests, presented to Mr. McQueen a very fine pair of field glasses which the recipient acknowledged very gracefully. The party had lunch on the Blanche and returned to the city about 6 o'clock yesterday evening.

CAPE FEAR ACADEMY.

Closed its Thirty-Second Annual Session Yesterday—Awards.

Cape Fear Academy, one of Wilmington's oldest and most thorough higher educational institutions closed its thirty-second annual session with appropriate exercises yesterday morning. After a short address to the students by the principal, Prof. W. Catlett, award of certificates of distinction for work done during the year, and for having passed satisfactory examination in their classes, were made. The names are given below in the order of excellence:

Senior Class—Hal F. Boatwright, H. H. Cranston, Adrian B. Rhodes, and Virginia O. Powers.

Junior Class—Allen G. Fechtig, Lloyd C. Allen, Sue H. Catlett, and S. Richmond Corinth.

Intermediate Class — Irvin D. Holmes and Harry Hayden.

Lloyd C. Allen and Virginia O. Powers have never been absent or late during the session. Virginia O. Powers and Sue H. Catlett have received no demerits, and are perfect in deportment. Hal F. Boatwright and Jas. R. Chasten have never been late. H. H. Cranston, A. B. Rhodes and S. Richmond Corinth have been late only once.

The principal has been teaching in Wilmington for 28 years. Many of the leading young business men of the city are numbered among his former pupils and their success in life is already abundant testimony to the excellence of the training given in Cape Fear Academy.

THE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Fifth Annual Report of Their Condition, Their Progress and Their Needs

BY SUPERINTENDENT BLAIR

Every Department of the Work Covered—Average Cost, Enrollment, Attendance, Etc., in All Institutions White and Colored.

Wilmington is justly proud of her public schools. Anything that pertains to them is of vital interest to the general Wilmington public. For that reason no apology is needed for publishing in full the very comprehensive and interesting report of Superintendent John J. Blair, made this week to the committees of Districts Nos. 1 and 2. The report, which is for the fifth consecutive year of Superintendent Blair's excellent administration of the affairs of the schools, covers not only the present condition, but also the progress and needs of the splendid system with a comparative statement of the average cost here and in other cities operating their schools under practically the same conditions. But the report speaks for itself. It follows:

To the School Committees of Districts No. 1 and 2 of Wilmington, N. C.

Gentlemen: — In accordance with your rules and regulations, I have the honor to submit to you my fifth annual report of the condition, progress and needs of the schools of this city which are under your charge. A statistical summary is as follows:

Summary.

	Av. D.At. 1903-4	Calm.	Girls	Total	Av. D.At. 1904-5	Boys	Total	Grand Total
Union	613	73	492	905	674	413	1,023	1,841

Grand Total	2,006		1,590	2,817	1,994	1,217	2,817

One year ago it was estimated that there would be a falling off in the attendance in all the schools on account of the compulsory vaccination law. The statistics show, however, that there has been a gain in the average daily attendance in the schools for white children of 98 and a loss of 110 in the schools for negroes, or a net loss of only 12 in all the schools.

The High School.

The buildings and grounds of the Wilmington High School comprise a splendid gift to this city from the Trustees of the Mary Hemenway estate as a memorial to its founder and her devoted co-worker, Amy Morris Bradley.

The growth of the public school system in the United States, and in the South particularly, has been as significant as it has been remarkable. in 1850 reports of the Commissioner of Education show that there were in the whole United States 11 High Schools; in 1860 there were 44, and three of them in the South; in 1900 there were 6,005, and in 1902, 6,318. Of this number, 1,378 are in the Southern States, and had an enrollment of 88,262 students.

It is of interest to note, too, that during the last decade the number of students in the High Schools in North Carolina increased from 339 to 1,339. Fortunately our own city can claim the leading place in the State as to High School buildings, grounds, equipments, number of students and character and dignity of work done. The mission of this school is two-fold. It forms a connecting link between the grammar school and the college, and at the same time furnishes, for the great majority of students, who will never reach the doors of a college or university, a sufficient amount of training along different lines, to enable them to live up to what the ideals of time demand, and fill with credit the position in church, State and society which they are destined to hold. The graduates now number 91, and the loyalty of these alumni to their alma mater will prove a source of helpfulness and encouragement for all future time.

The Alumni Association, by its meetings, special exercises and receptions helps to keep alive the class spirit and revives the love each one has for the school whose influence is to be felt throughout his life. As a rule, the instruction given is up to the standard which the dignity of such an institution demands. Too much emphasis cannot be laid upon the importance of securing and retaining the best talent, whether from home or abroad, which the finances will allow.

The school is now better organized and better classified than it has been heretofore. The attendance has been better, and nearly all students enrolled in the Spring term remained until the close of the school. A high de-

RE-CAPTURING JAIL BIRDS

Five and Perhaps Six of The Twelve Have Been Arrested in Their Flight—Others.

Five and possibly six of the most desperate of the criminals who escaped from the county jail early Monday morning, have been recaptured and Sheriff Stedman is relentless in his efforts and expenditures to recapture the remainder of them, personally directing a thorough search of the country for miles around.

Sam Long, one of the negroes captured by Policeman I. F. Huggins at Jacksonville, Onslow county, Monday, after an exciting chase during which the negro ran into the river, was brought in yesterday by Officer Huggins and Special Deputy Wm Sheehan. Long is charged with George Boney, in breaking into Mr. R. A. Montgomery's store, on Princess street. While on their way to Wilmington with the prisoner yesterday, the officers saw through the car window two negroes whom they thought they could recognize as George Boney and Tom Ellington, lying under a shade tree, near the railroad track, between Verona and Jacksonville. When the train stopped at Verona, the officers telegraphed back to Jacksonville to send an officer out after them. Chief of Police H. A. Jarman responded and soon telegraphed to Wilmington that he had the men, and Mr. Sheehan returned on the afternoon train for them.

Sheriff Stedman and posse were engaged all day and last night in pursuing Louis Brooks and one or more others of the birds in Brunswick county, they having been seen to cross the river yesterday morning. Brooks is reported to be armed with a Winchester rifle, but the Sheriff and his men are determined to capture him at any cost, if he is overtaken. Last night a telephone message from Dr. G. L. Clark, at Clarkton, stated that a negro answering the description of John Bishop, implicated in the killing of Wiley Kelley and sentenced to two years, had been captured there. Mr. J. W. Clark telephoned a description of the negro, who gave his name as John Bishop Jackson, and the description exactly corresponds to the man wanted. Constable Savage left for Clarkton last night to identify the negro and bring him back.

PERSONAL PARAGRAPHS.

—Mr. Jno. A. Mills, of Raleigh, was a guest at The Orton yesterday.

—Mrs. Anna Dunham left yesterday to visit relatives at Stedman, N. C.

—Mr. and Mrs. Herbert L. Borden arrived last evening to attend the marriage of Miss Kathrine Lamar Maffitt and Mr. Harry Woolcott, which will be celebrated this afternoon at 5:30 o'clock in Saint James' Episcopal church.

—The following invitations have been received by friends: "Mr. Leonidas Clifton Powers requests the honor of your presence at the marriage of his daughter, Helen, to Mr. William Boney, Wednesday evening, June the seventh, nineteen hundred and five at seven o'clock, Presbyterian church, Wallace, N. C."

Leaped From The Train.

Ferdinand Kirby, a Goldsboro negro, who was trying to beat his way with two others on top of a coach of the Wilmington excursion to Wilson Monday, was pulled down to the platform by Capt. Hinton in charge of the train, and when asked for his fare, he made a leap off the coach, badly gashing his head and breaking both legs near the thigh. The excursion train went back after the wounded negro and carried him to the A. C. L. hospital at Rocky Mount. The two other negroes on top of the car paid their fare on the train.

—At the regular convention of Clarendon Lodge No. 2, K. of P., last night, the following officers were elected for the ensuing six months, July 1st: C. C., C. R. Kriner; V. C., L. Bragdon; Prelate, J. G. Reaves; M. of W., W. J. Flynn; M. at A., J. G. Reaves; I. G., J. D. Brantley; O. G. B. D. Trapp. The officers will be installed by Deputy Grand Chancellor W. C. Von Glahn at the first convention of the lodge in July.

SET-BACKS TO THE MACHINE

The Washington Post delivers itself this way:

"When told that President Roosevelt had chosen Mr. Charles J. Bonaparte for Secretary of the Navy, the Hon. Frank C. Wachter, a leading Republican of the city of Baltimore and State of Maryland, exclaimed, 'I am simply astonished!' And it is quite likely that there are other regulation Republicans, in Maryland and elsewhere, whom this administration will astound before the world is much older.

"The entire political career of Theodore Roosevelt has been a protest against, and a defiance of, what is known in American politics as 'the machine.' The preferment of such a man as Charles J. Bonaparte is a mortal affront to the machine. Mr. Bonaparte is a reformer, and the machine and reform cannot walk on the same side of the street. When Mr. Roosevelt was nominated for President last Summer the machine tendered its services and proposed to furnish him and the Republican party a chairman of the national committee, a chief of staff, to conduct the campaign. Mr. Roosevelt declined. He astonished the machine, and named for first place in the party organization that had been held by Marshall Jewell, Z. Chandler, B. F. Jones, Matthew S. Quay, Thomas H. Carter, and Mark Hanna—the President named a clerk, a child of that most hateful of all innovations—civil service reform. That department clerk, already a Cabinet minister by the evolution of civil service reform, ran the campaign, and did it very well. It is doubtful if he had ever been a delegate to a political convention. It is certain that he had never manipulated a primary. Had he been detailed to barter with the brethren of a Southern delegation, he would have been helpless. The machine was not only astonished—it was disgusted. Here was the head of the party selecting for his chief of staff a man who could not stock a hoe in a pawpaw grove, according to all previously accepted ideas of practical politics, but the party, with Mr. Cortelyou as chairman gained the greatest victory in its history.

"Last winter disclosed that Roosevelt has more influence with his administration than all the machines of all the States. The appointment of Mr. Harris as postmaster of Baltimore is an example. The appointment of Mr. Bonaparte to the Cabinet is a more conspicuous example of it. The order to the Kentucky officeholders to retire from machine politics is a most signal example of it. If this thing keeps on at this rate it will have become disreputable to be a machine politician by next election.

"Then the President astonished the stand patters by his determination that certain interests should take their feet out of the trough, and he has, in advance of the session, embarrassed the Fifty-ninth Congress by putting it up to that body to keep the aforesaid feet in the trough. This is an astonishing administration."

Indeed it is a very remarkable administration. During his first term Mr. Roosevelt busied himself in getting his party where he could get the nomination, and after he was nominated and elected he declared his independence by announcing that he would not be a candidate for the Presidency again. No doubt he has astonished his party more than he has the Democrats.

The Roosevelt administration is unique, picturesque and kaleidoscopic, but it seems to get along very well. Since Mr. Roosevelt has been President, he has had four Postmasters General, two Secretaries of the Treasury, two Secretaries of War, two Attorneys General, two Secretaries of Commerce and Labor, and when Mr. Bonaparte becomes Secretary of the Navy July 1st, he will be the fourth man to hold that postfolio. The only cabinet positions in which there have been no change since President McKinley's death have been the Department of State, the Department of the Interior and the Department of Agriculture. The New York Commercial in noting all these changes in President Roosevelt's cabinet, says:

"Still, no complaints are heard of disorganization or friction arising from these successive changes, nor have there been any violent 'shake-ups' in the personnel of the numerous bureaus. It is clear that the President has his official family well in hand and that the governmental 'help problem' does not bother him a bit."

The fact of the business is we have so many men who can be entrusted with high government places that a President need not make a mistake unless he tries mighty hard to do it.

"Iritability is petty vice," remarks the Houston Chronicle. It is also a pretty good sign that there is "a screw loose" some where.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—She—I shouldn't be surprised to hear of another engagement—John and Celia are such close friends. He—Yes, comrades in arms.—Yale Record.

—Whichever way the thing goes, it is safe to predict that ex-Senator Marion Butler will not lose out. As a smooth article, he is superb.—Charlotte Observer.

—He—The trouble with you women is that you tell all you know. She—Not all. Some of us merely tell what we want to. He—Well, what's the difference?—Philadelphia Press.

—Mrs. Ferguson—George, how do you like my strawberry shortcake? Mr. Ferguson—I refuse to answer, Laura, on the ground that my answer might incriminate me.—Chicago Tribune.

—How He Sold It.—Miss Peechie—I want a hammock that will not break down. Polite Clerk—Can't guarantee any of 'em, Miss. Miss Peechie—Why, that's strange. Polite Clerk—Not at all. We'd do it if you were a homely girl, but——Cleveland Leader.

—Mrs. Crawford—Now that the honey-moon is over, I suppose you find your husband has grown economical with his kisses? Mrs. Crabshaw—He has reached a worse stage than that, my dear. He has grown economnical with his money.—Illustrated Bits.

TWINKLINGS.

—"Is your husband at home, madam?" asked the caller. "Sure and he's not," said the big, red-faced woman who had opened the door. "You see, madam, I am a traveling phrenologist, and I'd like to examine the bumps on your husband's head." "You'er too late. We did have a bit of an argument this morning, and my husband's gone down to the doctor's to let him examine them."—Chicago Journal.

—An amusing story of Prince Edward of Wales is being told. The little lad, who is now nearly 11 years old, has been diligently studying English history, and he was being examined on the period of Henry VII. "Who was Perkin Warbeck?" he was asked. "Perkin Warbeck," replied the Prince, "was a pretender. He pretended to be the son of a king, but he wasn't. He was the son of respectable parents."—Philadelphia Ledger.

—Poetic justice never was more significantly illustrated than in the location of the fearful chastisement of the remnant of the Russian navy. Rojestvesky's fleet was battered in the very waters wherein, in 1894, the combined Russian, German and French squadrons made their "demonstration" to bulldoze victorious Japan into relinquishment of the Liaotung peninsula. Within earshot of Togo's avenging guns was Shinonoseki, whose name was lent to the Chino-Japenese treaty clause which on that occasion Russia ruthlessly and brutally forced Japan to cancel, that the czar might seize the mikado's ligitimate prize for himself.—New York Press.

FORECLOSURE PROCEEDINGS.

New Orleans Railways Company Defaulted in Interest on $40,000,000.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, June 15.—An ancillary decree of foreclosure and sale in the case of the New York Security and Trust Company against the New Orleans Railways Company, was filed today in the United States Circuit Court here and was signed by Judge Lacombe. The original bill of foreclosure was granted by the Federal Court of New Jersey in Trenton. The paintiff was the trustee of $40,000,000 issue of bonds upon the properties of the defendant corporation, and on June 1, 1905, under the deed of trust there became due bonds of the par value of $17,809,000 and interest amounting to $400,702. Payment upon these securities the complaint charged, was wholly refused. Suit was then instituted for foreclosure by the plaintiff, and Edwin C. Foster, of New Orleans, was appointed special master by the Federal courts of New Jersey to sell the property of the defendant if the amounts due were not paid within five days from the first day of June, 1905. The court provides that a portion of the payment for the property may be made with the outstanding bonds, and overdue coupons of the defendant corporation. These the New Jersey court allows to be received at such value as shall be equivalent to the amount that the holders would be entitled to receive on them in case the entire purchase price was paid in cash.

RACE RIOT IN SOUTH CAROLINA

One White Man and One Negro Killed—Whites Under Arms.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Augusta, Ga., June 5.—A race riot at Turner, S. C., has resulted in the death of Burrell McLane, a white man, the serious wounding of his son, the death of one negro, and the wounding of three others. It is said the white population of the community is in arms and Sheriff Ralborne and Coroner Owens of Aiken county at once went to the scene of the trouble.

McLane and his son yesterday afternoon went to a house on the former's place and ordered Dave Garden Heigh to return a child, which it is claimed had been stolen from a negro woman. A number of negroes at the house attacked the McLanes' and several shots were exchanged, the elder McLane being instantly killed and a son of Heigh being shot to death. Several members of the party of negroes are being pursued by a hundred armed white men who threaten lynching.

EUROPEAN COTTON SPINNERS.

International Combination to Control the Manufacturing Industry.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Manchester, Eng., June 5.—The second international Congress of representatives of the master cotton spinners and manufacturers opened here today. The delegates present represented England, Belgium, Portugal, Italy, France, Germany, Spain, Holland and Switzerland. Russia was not represented and no American delegate had arrived up ot the time of adjournment this evening. The Lord Mayor, of Manchester, welcomed the delegates. Charles W. Macara, president of the International Committee of Cotton Spinners, in his address recommended the federation of all the organizations into an international combination in order to control the cotton industry.

COTTON MARKETS.

New York, June 6.—The cotton market was less active and irregular within a comparatively narrow range. The opening was barely steady ... unchanged prices to a decline of 4 points in spite of higher cables than expected, further liquidation, and bear pressure being attracted by the favorable weather in the South and expectations of a bearish weekly crop bulletin at midday. There was covering at the decline, but commission house longs were apprehensive that large deliveries were being planned on July contracts and during the early trading the market worked off to a net loss of about 4 to 70 points, with July leading. There was a partial recovery as the shorts took profits, and the market immediately following the weekly report, sold some 3 to 5 points net higher as the details of the report read a little less bearishly than had been anticipated. The improvement was not held in ...e later trading, however, and the market closed quiet and steady at just about the opening figures, or net unchanged to 3 points lower. Sales of futures were estimated at 250,000.

Spot closed dull, middling uplands, 8.40; middling gulf, 8.64; sales, 133 bales.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE.

—James Galloway, colored, in attempting to make his escape from convict camp near Winston-Salem on Monday, was shot and seriously wounded. Nineteen shots took effect in his back and right side.

—Rocky Mount Record: Messrs. Austin & Grantham have secured the services of ex-Governor Charles B. Aycock for the next term of Nash court, and he will appear with them in all their cases for the entire two weeks' term.

—Smithfield Herald: Clayton and Kenly have called elections to be held on June 26th, to see whether the dispensaries in these towns shall be closed. It seems that there is a firm determination to rid Johnston county of the legalized liquor traffic.

—The three-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Hine, who reside near Wallburg, Davidson county, met with a fatal accident Sunday morning. The child was riding on the front seat of a phaeton, going with its parents to church services at Friedland. The little one lost its balance and fell from the vehicle. One of the rear wheels ran across the child's abdomen, inflicting internal injuries, from which it died that night.

Fayetteville Observer, June 5: Hope Mills was the scene of three bold robberies last night. The two stores of Mr. John Harrington and Mr. Leon McDuffie's store were broken into and great quantities of goods taken. There were several robbers in the party, and they used a wagon to cart off the plunder. They gained entrance by the windows in two of the stores, and the third, which was Harrington's grocery store, they secured access to by breaking the door down with an ax. Last Sunday night Mr. Matt Morgan's store in Hope Mills was entered, and it is on suspicion of having something to do with the crime that John Garvin is now in jail. Sheriff Marsh and all his deputies are aiding Chief of Police of Hope Mills Andrews in a search for the robbers.

GOOD LUCK Baking Powder

make it the most widely chosen of all leavening agents. During this year 16,145,114 pounds have been sold (many orders coming in for car-load shipments), which is the largest business for a single factory in the world. This is only the inevitable result of the original Good Luck plan—to furnish the best baking powder in the world at the lowest price—to cents a pound. Good Luck is the best because it is purest, because it produces the lightest, whitest, sweetest of baking. These results are due to its unequaled leavening force, to the fact that it contains no adulteration whatever. It is the most economical because it takes less to do the work than any other baking powder. If your dealer doesn't sell Good Luck let us know, and we'll see that you are supplied at once.

IT IS FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpicide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth with Newbro's "Herpicide." Besides, Herpicide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpicide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpicide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dye. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

gree of manliness and womanliness has characterized the bearing of the student body. The ideal of self-government has been to a large extent developed. Originality of thought and expression and a spirit of investigation and research has become noticeable on the part of most of our students, especially those of the more advanced classes.

The Wilmington High School has a large part to fill in the varied enterprises and industries of this city. Its past is secure, and what possibilities or usefulness the future has in store, no one can comprehend.

To much praise cannot be given Mr. Hamilton, the principal, and his able corps of assistants for their zeal and earnestness in the conduct of the school.

Domestic Science.

Three years ago the School Committee of District No. 2, aided by the ladies of Sorosis, established a cooking school. Each year more than 100 girls, from the fifth to the eighth grades, have voluntarily availed themselves of the opportunities here offered. It purpose is two-fold. It has to do first with the development of individuals, and second that there shall come to each girl knowledge and experience that will be of direct use and effectiveness in her life and in her home.

Briefly stated, the following is included in the course: Selection and care of materials; preparation of foods; plain, invalid and fancy cooking; food values; economy in the purchase of materials; serving food and care of dining-room and kitchen utensils; general household economy and management; Physiology and hygiene, and treatment of wounds, injuries, etc.

This phase of school education has received the endorsement of pupils, teachers and parents. It has been a success from the beginning and is now no longer regarded as an experiment, but a necessary adjunct to a girl's complete education.

Needs of the Schools.

The greatest problem which confronts the City of Wilmington to-day is the problem of education. It is one which should command the thought and careful consideration of the school committees, the County Board of Education, the City Board of Aldermen and the co-operation and help of all progressive citizens. An editorial appeared in the Messenger last week headed "Crime in Wilmington," which was written in reply to comments made by different papers in the State to the effect that there was a great amount of crime and lawlessness in our city, and that it was on the increase.

As to whether the charge be true or not, the fact that such comments are being made casts a reflection upon us. Idleness and crime go hand in hand, and the fact that, as our census returns show us, there are so many boys and girls between the ages of six and eighteen years, whose names do not appear upon any of the school records, is just cause for alarm.

Careful estimates, based on the statistics at hand, indicate that at least 875 pupils will enter the Union School in the Fall on the opening day, which will be an average of 54 for each room now furnished. At the Hemenway, 700 pupils may be expected on the opening day, making an average of 50 for each room now furnished. Of the pupils in the High School 160 are expected to return, which will make with the 70 promoted from the grammar schools a total of 230, or an average of 46 for each room. This situation can be relieved somewhat by furnishing the one remaining spare room of each of the grammar schools. Even when this is done, however, the accommodations will still be inadequate.

All are aware of the evils attending an overcrowded school-room, viz: it is unhealthful; it makes the teaching ineffective; it causes discouragement and dissatisfaction to all concerned; resulting in the withdrawal of children from school, and usually makes of the teacher a physical wreck before the term is ended. How to remedy this condition of things is one of the chief problems which confronts the city at this time. In addition to this, if proper facilities were provided, at least 150 more pupils from the Southern section of the city, and as many more from the Northern section, could be enrolled in the schools as they are now situated, and if buildings for primary classes could be erected in each of these sections, the total enrollment of white children could easily be increased in one year by as much as four hundred.

Libraries.

Organized work in the reading of library books is carried on throughout the course to extend knowledge, develop new interest, establish habits of reading and to cultivate a love for good literature. An addition of a number of reference books to the High School library has been a great benefit.

The importance of adding each year to the libraries of the different schools cannot be too much emphasized.

The schools should not only train individuals to read, but should develop a taste for reading that which is good in literature, so that whatever may be their position in life they may find it possible through the world of books to bring their minds in touch with the minds of the great thinkers of all times.

As the school year has drawn to a close, there is a feeling of satisfaction and gratification on the part of both partons and teachers at the progress made and the substantial results accomplished.

The character of the written reports from all teachers and principals, the continued interest to the closing day of school on the part of all pupils, an unusually high percentage of promotions in all grades are indications that the work done during the year has been well up to the required standard.

A constant endeavor has been made on the part of the teachers to apply the best and most economic methods of instruction in the teaching of reading, writing, spelling, arithmetic, geography and English grammar; a thorough knowledge of these subjects being necessary as a foundation for successful progress in all future work.

For three years drawing has been systematically taught in both the grammar schools. This year has shown a great increase of interest and enthusiasm throughout the schools and a remarkable improvement in manual dexterity.

The children in all grades now look forward to the drawing hour with greatest pleasure. As drawing is the basis of all mechanic arts, for its practical value alone, due emphasis should be given it in the course of study. An exhibition of work was shown in both buildings, consisting of studies of the different orders of architecture, still life, pen ink and charcoal drawing from the model, wash drawing and water colors, all reflecting the greatest credit upon the teachers and pupils.

The Teaching Force.

A corps of teachers, strong individually, and as an organized body, make the ideal school.

Ability and disposition on the part of the individual to do good work is of supreme importance, but the ideal conditions exist only when each member becomes a part of the organized whole and works in cheerful accord with it.

With one exception, a meeting of all the teachers and principals was held each month during the term with a view to increasing the effectiveness and efficiency of the force and devising ways and means for the constant betterment of the educational interests.

A spirit of interest and conscientious devotion to duty has characterized the arduous labors of the teaching force this year, and to them is due the credit for whatever of success has been attained.

Non-Resident Pupils.

All pupils who were not bona fide residents of Wilmington have been charged the rate of tuition prescribed by the School Committee for the privileges of the school. An income of about $60.00 has been received from this scource.

The School Census.

The report made by the census takers, who visited every home in the City of Wilmington, furnishes much valuable information to the school authorities. A number of children of different ages were found in the city who were unable to either read or write, and some half-grown girls and boys who had never attended any school.

Non-attendance at school usually results from one to four causes, viz: 1. Indifference and lack of interest on the part of parents; 2. The hiring out of children for the purpose of increasing the family's income, and employment in performing household duties in the home; 3. Poverty, which implied the lack of sufficient means to clothe properly and buy books and the utensils necessary for their school use. 4. Lack of parental control.

The first difficulty can be partially overcome by missionary work on the part of teachers and committees from church and Sunday School organization; the second should be regulated by law; the third, poverty, can be partially overcome by organized charity; the last, which is one of the most difficult to deal with, can be partially overcome by the assistance of the police authorities.

The Schools for Negroes.

At this time it is proper that a record should be made for future reference of what has been done in the negro schools, outside the regular text book instructions, and what our hopes are for the future.

In the domestic science classes, which are conducted at a small cost, lessons have been given in sewing, cutting and fitting of garments, making of quilts care and use of the sewing machine, together with some instruction in cooking and general house-keeping. At the same time, lessons are given in morals, manners, politeness, cleanliness in all things, and health lessons in connection with practical hygiene and physiology.

In the Williston School all the boys were given some practical instruction in the elementary principles of agriculture and horiculture, including the preparation of seed beds, cultivation and raising of lettuce, radishes, strawberries, onions and other vegetables.

The exhibits in both schools were far ahead of any before made, and spoke eloquently of the devotion and interest of the teachers and the industry of those taught. In one of the schools a partial list of the articles exhibited is as follows: 38 pillow cases, 13 small dresses, 12 aprons, 7 underskirts, 4 large quilts, 6 wall pockets, 12 rugs, 37 entertainment costumes, 10 costumes cut out, 6 nicely re-bottomed chairs.

These articles are to be sold at a small profit, the proceeds to be used in the purchase of supplies for the department.

I believe, with others of the school authority, who have observed carefully their work, that the particular kind of education which is adapted to the peculiar needs of this race, is now being introduced, that the training is along right lines, and already good results have been obtained.

When means are available, I know it is in the mind of the committee to extend further the industrial features, so as to include cooking, laundrying and all forms of domestic science. The expense will be comparatively small and the amount of good which would result to the community, and to the race, could hardly be estimated.

The school for the negro child ought to be a place where he is taught how to live and how to labor, where he may learn how to sustain himself and aid others, to gain from his books a reasonable amount of learning and receiving lasting lessons in morals and manners. The day is near at hand we hope when every girl upon leaving school will have the ability to make a dress for herself and cook a good meal; when every boy can go out into the world with some knowledge gained by working in wood and metal and know something of the planting of seed and the raising of crops.

In these simple principles, lie, as we believe, the solution of the race problem in the South.

The superintendent has compared the cost of running the schools in Wilmington with that of other cities, and he finds that they have been conducted on a more economical basis than any, so far as he can ascertain, in the whole United States.

Below is the relative cost of school expenditures in the five leading cities of the State:

	Cost Per Cap.	Enrolled. N	Per Cent. W	Average At.	Enrollment.	School Census.	School Expenses.
Raleigh	10.70	44	57	18.39	2,588	6,324	$28,413
Durham	12.30.	37	55	17.31	2,700	4,734	33,228
Charlotte	9.93	59	48	22.23	3,107	5,625	30,871
Asheville	12.06	67	44	16.60	2,637	4,409	31,821
Wilmington	8.76	59	36	20.06	2,817	5,934	25,000

It is interesting to know that nearly all cities in the North, West and Southwest pay a much higher rate for education than those in the South.

While the comparatively small amount of money used is not a thing to boast of, yet the character and standing of the schools here and the equipment which has been supplied with the limited means provided, is, I believe, without a parallel in the educational history of our country.

The schools of Wilmington are here, and they are here to stay. They will forever form part of our municipal life, and continue to take the leading place among the great public enterprises of this city.

As this is true, a permanent source of revenue should be provided for their support and maintenance, such as will relieve the School Committee of any embarrassment or concern, and will enable them to add continually to their efficiency and growth and to employ the best available talent.

To the school committees, and the County Board of Education, is due the thanks of the entire community for the success which has attended their efforts in directing the educational interests of the city.

Yours most respectfully,
JOHN J. BLAIR,
Superintendent.

Conviction Follows Trial

When buying loose coffee or anything your grocer happens to have in his bin, how do you know what you are getting? Some queer stories about coffee that is sold in bulk, could be told, if the people who handle it (grocers), cared to speak out.

Could any amount of mere talk have persuaded millions of housekeepers to use the leader of all package coffees for over a quarter of a century, if they had not found it superior to all other brands in Purity, Strength, Flavor and Uniformity?

Lion Coffee,

This popular success of LION COFFEE can be due only to inherent merit. There is no stronger proof of merit than continued and increasing popularity.

If the verdict of MILLIONS OF HOUSEKEEPERS does not convince you of the merits of LION COFFEE, it costs you but a trifle to buy a package. It is the easiest way to convince yourself, and to make you a PERMANENT PURCHASER.

IT'S YOUR KIDNEYS

Don't Mistake the Cause of Your Troubles—A Wilmington Citizen Shows How to Cure Them.

Many people never suspect their kidneys. If suffering from a lame, weak or aching back they think that it is only a muscular weakness; when urinary troubles sets in they think it will soon correct itself. And so it is with all the other symptoms of kidney disorders. That is just where the danger lies. You must cure these troubles or they lead to diabetes or Bright's disease. The best remedy to use is Doan's Kidney Pills. It cures all ills which are caused by weak or diseased kidneys. Wilmington people testify to permanent cures.

E. Poezolt, merchant tailor, of No. 8 South Front street, residing at 315 North Sixth street, says: "My wife used Doan's Kidney Pills and in her case they proved to be an effective remedy. She suffered with her ankles and could scarcely get down stairs in the morning. We thought it was rheumatism and her ankles would be all puffed up every morning so she could hardly hobble around. Since obtaining Doan's Kidney Pills at R. R. Bellamy's drug store and taking them she seems like another person. She is better in the morning, the swelling left her ankle and from the great relief she obtained we are only too glad to recommend Doan's Kidney Pills to others."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buaffio, New York, sole agents for the United States.

COTTON AND TOBACCO.

Government Bulletin Reports Conditions Improved ni South.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 6.—Crop conditions of cotton and tobacco are summarized as follows in the weekly bulletin issued by the Weather Bureau.

A general improvement in the general condition of cotton is indicated. With the exception of Southern Texas and portions of the East Gulf, and the South Atlantic States, where heavy rains have fallen, the weather has afforded opportunity for such needed cultivation, which has been actively carried on, although a large part of the crop is still in grass, with sufficient labor. Cool nights over the northern portion of the Central districts have checked the advance of cotton, but, as a whole, growth has been satisfactory, especially in the eastern districts. Some planting remains unfinished in portions of Arkansas, Louisiana and Texas.

Good progress with tobacco planting has been made in the Ohio valley and Middle Atlantic States, where the outlook for this crop is promising, although cut worms are causing injury in Virginia and Kentucky.

LAWYERS' RIGHTS SUSTAINED.

Can't Be Compelled to Divulge Contents of Clients' Papers.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 6.—Justice Barnard of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia today sustained the contention of W. Mosby Williams, a lawyer, who declined to answer certain questions propounded to him as a witness in the cases of Baroness von Roques, mother of Mrs. Florence E. Maybrick, against David W. Armstrong, for the recovery of certain real estate in Virginia and elsewhere. The proceedings before Notary Galt, the commissioner empowered to hear testimony to be used in the chancery court of Richmond, Va., will be resumed tomorrow. Mr. Williams was questioned concerning certain papers, alleged to have bearing on the case, which he had obtained as ocunsel for John H. Walters, and concerning which he declined to be examined on the grounds that whatever papers were in his possession came in the course of business with a client who, subsequently might be involved in the case.

THE EQUITABLE TROUBLES.

Ten of Board of Directors Have Resigned.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

New York, June 6.—Three more directors resigned today from the Board of the Equitable Life Assurance Society and at least one more will retire tomorrow, making in all ten resignations since the present troubles of the society began.

The resignation of A. J. Cassatt, president of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, was followed this afternoon by the announcements of the resignations of John A. Stewart, chairman of the Board of Directors of the United States Trust Company, and John Sloane, prominent in banking and trust company circles. The resignation of D. O. Mills will be hadned to President Alexander tomorrow. Mr. Mills was at first inclined to postpone action until the meeting tomorrow but decided not to attend the meeting.

The other directors who have resigned from the Equitable Board are H. C. Frick, E. H. Harriman, T. Jefferson College, M. E. Ingalls, Jacob H. Schiff and Cornelius N. Bliss.

TWO BOYS BURNED TO DEATH.

Were Playing Under Brush Heap and It Caught Fire.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Atlantic City, N. J., June 6.—The bodies of two boys who met a horrible death by cremation on the beach this afternoon have been identified as those of Ordner J. Delaney and William Jeffries both of this city, aged 7 and 5 years respectively. The two boys were inseparable companions. They had gone to a brush heap of pine trees on the beach front at New Hampshire avenue which trees were to be used to build a jetty. They dug a hole beneath the pile and crawled under. It is believed they had matches for soon the brush was ablaze and before the boys could crawl out they were cremated. Their charred bodies were scarcely recognizable. Firemen who responded to put out the blaze did not know the boys were under the brush until a hoseman lifted one end of the brush to get a stream of water under it. He then saw the two burned bodies side by side.

LIGHTING TRUST IN MEXICO.

Canadian Syndicate Buys Out All Companies—To Spend Millions.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Mexico City, June 6.—The Mexican Light and Power Company, a Canadian concern operating here, has purchased all the light and power plants of this city. This is believed to be the biggest individual deal in the commercial history of Mexico. The amount paid the Mexican Gas and Electric Company is $5,000,000 and the Idlefonso Company $4,000,000 in stock and $2,000,000 in bonds are given for its properties the total figures of the deal being $11,000,000. The expenditures of the Mexican Light and Power Company, when work is completed, will be $40,000,000.

PEACE OUTLOOK IS UNCERTAIN

General Linevitch Wants to Carry on the War to the Last Ditch.

BELIEVES HE CAN CONQUER

Several of War Party at St. Petersburg Have Weakened—General Coaxing Russians from Entrenched Position.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Headquarters of the Russian Army, Gunshu Pass, Manchuria, June 6.—Undismayed by Rojestvensky's defeat and full of confidence as to the outcome of the approaching battle, Lieutenant General Linevitch is for war to the bitter end and he believes that the Manchurian army is now strong enough to assume the aggressive.

To a question put to him the correspondent of the Associated Press to whom he granted an interview today, as to whether he was for war or for pence, the commander-in-chief, replied firmly and without the slightest hesitation:

'Most certainly I am for war. I am a soldier. The Emperor's will is naturally my law, but my voice now as before is for the continuance of the fight.

"With the destruction of our fleet vanishes of course the hopes of those who at the beginning of the war wished to make peace at Tokio, but our defeat at sea has not interfered with my plans—absolutely not one whit. I consider myself strong enough now not only to hold my ground but even to advance.

"I am no prophet and have no desire to be one, but I firmly believe that I can and will defeat the Japanese in Manchuria.

"I have asked the war office to send me reservists of the youngest classes instead of older ones, not because the latter make poor soldiers, but because with plenty of young and vigorus reservists it would be unjust as well as inadvisable to call the older men from their more settled life."

Waiting for the Czar to Speak for Peace.

Washington, June 6.—Pending the decision of the Czar regarding war or peace in the Far East, the President and the European ambassadors with whom he is daily conferring have agreed that silence regarding their activities is necessary and word to this effect has been passed along. lest Russia take offense and go contrary to what the neutral powers believe to be for her own advantage.

Count Cassini, the Russian ambassador, remains without advices from St. Petersburg that throw any light on the probable policy of the Czar. The ambassador has not yet received an acknowledgement of his long cablegram of last week regarding the conference with the President. It is expected that later on the Russian embassy here will be informed whether the result of the battle in the Sea of Japan has affected the determination of the St. Petersburg government to continue the war. Any information on this subject will be promptly placed before the President.

Peace talk was temporarily supplanted in diplomatic circles today by comment upon the resignation of M. Del Casse. Commenting on this tonight a European diplomat said:

"While M. Del Casse was at the head of the French foreign office, his intimacy with Lord Lansdowne gave to London and Paris a splendid opportunity for concerted action that would induce Russia and Japan to talk of peace. The retirement of M. Del Casse must necessarily have an effect upon the Anglo-French entente as well as the French-Russian alliance. Not only was M. Del Casse largely responsible for the former but he was generally recognized as the best friend Russia possessed in France. The radical party which is now in power is not as friendly to Russia as was Del Casse. Without Del Case's assistance, Lord Lansdowne can hardly hope to accomplish much toward peace."

Regarding the attitude of Emperor Willia mtoward the war in the Far East, the Associated Press is authorized to say that from the beginning of the war the Emperor has been anxious for peace. He, however, has refrained from advising either of the belligerents, believing that until one or the other of them should intimate a wish to conclude peace any intervention of offer of mediation would prove futile. The Emperor, however, has let his strong desire for peace be known.

More Hopeful of Peace.

Paris, June 6.—Information which reaches here gives a decidedly more hopeful view to the peace outlook. This is particularly true concerning the unity of the foreign pressure which is being exerted. Although it is not yet evident that Russia will yield to these influences, the exchanges in which Berlin is taking an important part are considered likely to exert a strong tendency towards the initiation of peace negotiations. It is the understanding that Germany and the United States are now taking the foremost part in the efforts towards peace with the other powers lending them strong moral support.

The War Ships at Manila.

St. Petersburg, June 6.—Russia has practically agreed to the internment of the Russian warships at Manila.

Washington, June 6.—The Russian embassy here has made inquiry of the State Department as to the intentions of this government respecting the Russian warships at Manila. Acting Secretary of State Loomis has replied by informing the embassy of the general nature of the instructions cabled yesterday to Governor Wright and Admiral Train.

War Party Weakening.

St. Petersburg, June 7.—2:35 A. M.—Beyond the statement that the advisibility of confiding the opening of peace negotiations to President Roosevelt in the event that Emperor Nicholas shall have decided that the time has arrived to indicate to Japan Russia's desire to end the struggle, was presented in a favorable light, no definite announcement can be made at this hour regarding the result of Foreign Minister Lamsdorff's audience with the Emperor on the subject of Count Cassini's dispatch communicating the President's practical tender of good offices. In can, however, be stated in addition that Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch, who was the most uncompromising advocate of war to the last ditch, has joined Grand Duke Vladimir, uncle of the Emperor, in counselling the conclusion of peace.

Another important convert made by the advocates of peace is Admiral Alexieff. With Grand Duke Alexander Michaelovitch, Grand Duke Vladimir and Admiral Alexieff on the side of peace, the back bone of what has been denominated the war party seems to have been broken. Nevertheless, the final word rests with the Emperor himself.

Japanese Coaxing Linevitch.

Gunshu Pass, Manchuria, June 6.—The Japanese appear to be withdrawing to the southward along their whole front. It is thought that this is perhaps a maneuvre to entice Lieutenant General Linevitch from his prepared positions.

NO LEAK OF STATISTICS SAYS SECRETARY WILSON

Declares Absurd the Charge of Southern Cotton Association That Employes Give Out Advance Information.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Washington, June 6.—At the conclusion of the cabinet meeting today Secretary Wilson said his attention had been called to the charges of the Southern Cotton Association that there had been a "leak" in the information gathered by the Agricultural Department concerning the cotton crop. He characterized the charges as ridiculous. It was possible, he said, that somebody connected with the department had been pretending to have knowledge of the cotton figures of the Department but as a matter of fact it was practically impossible for anybody to obtain advance information of any value.

"The reports come from the various States in the cotton belt," said he, "and those from the field agents of the Department are received by the statistician under seals placed in a safe. On the day when the totals are to be footed and the estimates made, these reports are taken from the safe in the presence of myself, the statistician and such assistance as we may need to do the work. Behind locked doors we examine the reports and make up the reports which, as soon as we complete the task is given to the public. There is no possibility, so far as I can understand of anybody obtaining advance information as to the report made public. I can conceive that, by collusion with an agent here or there in the country, one might obtain a little information, but it would be of no value whatever."

Secretary Wilson indicated his intention, however, of instituting an inquiry into thec harges, with a view to eliminating any possibility of fraud. He said that so far as he knew, Mr. Hyde, the statistician of the Department, had no idea of postponing his trip to Europe on account of the charges which had been made public.

BRYAN AIDS KENTUCKY COLLEGE

Sends Check For $400 Left By Bennett Will.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Frankfort, Ky., June 5.—Governor Beckham today received from Hon. William J. Bryan, of Nebraska, a check for $400 to be paid to the Kentucky Agricultural and Mechanical and Industrial college and invested. The annual proceeds are to purchase a prize for the best essay discussing the principles of free government. The money is part of a fund of $10,000 left to Mr. Bryan as trustee by the late Philo Sherman Bennett, of Connecticut, to be distributed among twenty-five colleges.

Horse Notes.

Allow a horse a reasonable time to rest after feeding.

Mares bred in the fall will endure good service without injury.

A dumb, stupid colt can never be educated to be a valuable horse.

Size, form, bone and constitution must be regarded first in breeding.

Let the heels be cleaned every night. Dirt or filth, if allowed to cake, causes sore heels.

While horses need good, wholesome food, it should not be all of the fat producing kinds.

A Delicious Dish.

A delicious breakfast or luncheon dish is potatoes stewed with tender bacon. Cut the bacon into large dice and fry until very slightly colored. The bacon should not be allowed to crisp. Drain and mix with creamed potatoes prepared in the usual manner—that is, cut in cubes and warmed in a rich cream sauce. Let the potatoes and bacon simmer for a few moments before serving, that the two flavors may have a chance to mingle. Sprinkle with minced parsley.—New York Post.

Carry Your Own Pillow.

Many people when away from home find it difficult to sleep well in a strange bed and arise in the morning with a sense of having passed a decidedly unsatisfactory night. An old railway official, who ought to know, says the trouble is all in the pillow. It's the pillow first, last and always. He has slept in many lands and under all imaginable conditions and years ago came to the conclusion that with one's own pillow at hand it mattered little about the bed. On an extended tour he always takes his pillow with him, stowing it carefully at the bottom of the trunk for future reference. "If I could start life over again," he says, "I would learn to sleep without a pillow (the only proper way), but the art must be acquired during childhood. The next best thing is your own pillow wherever possible. Try it and be convinced.—Philadelphia Record.

As a whole, the soil of the north is more fertile than the soil of the south. One reason of this is that the north is locked up tight for five months during the winter season, and the soil escapes the destructive erosion which the winter rains inflict upon the uncovered soils of the south. This is one of the compensations of severe winter weather which are rarely considered.

Pleasant Outing.

Mr. Geo. E. Leftwich's class of the First Baptist Sunday School enjoyed a delightful excursion up and down the river last night on the steamer "Lilly." Capt. Hall, the clever master of the boat was at the wheel and the young people, about 60 in number, enjoyed a delightful outing.

CLOUD BURSTS IN TWO STATES

Floods Sweeping Over Large Portions of Michigan and Wisconsin

MANY CITIES UNDER WATER

Loss of Life and Immense Damage—Bridges Washed Away and Trains Held Up—Tidal Waves In Lakes.

By Wire to the Morning Star.

Detroit, Mich., June 6.—Reports today from the State say that the rain and wind storm which was general all over the lower part of Michigan yesterday afternoon and last night was the most severe in many years. In addition to the loss of life reported last night, in Sanilac and Tuscola counties where the storm assumed cyclonic proportions, heavy property loss is reported in all directions. At Grand Rapids, the rain fall was almost a cloud burst. On the westside districts were flooded that were not affected by the great flood of 1904. About five hundred homes were surrounded by water. A number of manufacturing plants were compelled to close for the day, their first floors being two and three feet under water. No trains arrived or departed from the city during the early part of the day.

Three Grand Trunk bridges are washed out in Ottowa county. At Lowell the dam and bridge across Grand river were washed out with two buildings that stood on the bank. At Ionia the Grand river is many feet over its banks and thousands of dollars damage has been done by the high water. The Springbrook mill, two miles above Lowell, on the Grand Trunk, was washed out. At Lansing the precipitation was 4.80 inches. In Detroit the precipitation was 2.94 inches yesterday afternon and last night, the heaviest fall in thirteen years.

The storm damage in Western Michigan is estimated at $500,000. The loss in Grand Rapids and immediate vicinity alone will reach $100,000. The lost of those injured in the "Thumb" district yesterday by the cyclone was increased today when word was received from the village of Kingston that eleven people were injured there. One of them may die. Thirteen houses and eighteen barns are blown down in the vicinity of the village.

Stock Drowned.

Menominee, Mich., June 6.—The heaviest rain in years has swollen the Menominee river and tributaries to flood proportions. Much stock has been drowned and crops have sustained serious damage. Train service is crippled by washouts.

Wisconsin City Under Water.

Fondulac, Wis., June 6.—Fondulac is batiling with the worst flood of its history and with threatening clouds overhead today and with more rain, the whole city may be under water before another twenty-four hours. Ninteteen thoroughfares are covered with water. The downtown basement and resident cellars are flooded. The damage so far is estimated to reach about $100,000 in the city with possibly twice that amount in the country.

St. Agnes hospital and the convent are badly flooded. Seven washouts are reported on the Wisconsin Central and five on the Chicago and Northwestern. The St. Paul road has not had a train in or out this city since late last night. Two hotels in the flooded district can be reached by boat. Street car service from the city to the suburbs has been tied up and the interurban line to Oshkosh is not running.

Chippewa Above Danger Point.

Lacrosse, Wis., June 6.—The United States weather bureau here received official notice that the Chippewa river at Chippewa Falls is now two and a half feet above the danger line. The sudden rise was due to the arrival of floods from the North and to the recent rains.

Damage to Many Towns.

Milwaukee, Wis., June 6.—Specials from Manitowoc, Barron, Chilton, Sheboygan Falls, Janesville and other points in Wisconsin report damage to property and more or less delay to railway traffic owing to heavy rains and to rapidly rising river.

All Trains Held Up.

Appleton, Wis., June 6.—The worst rain storms of years have swept this part of Wisconsin during the past two days. As a result this entire country is today practically under water. Owing to numerous washouts no trains on either division of the Chicago and Northwestern railway have arrived here from the South since yesterday.

Heavy Tidal Waves in the Lakes.

Chicago, June 6.—Shifting atmospheric conditions on Lake Michigan caused a succession of "tidal waves" today, two being recorded in Chicago. Each of the seiches on the Chicago side of the lake rose to a height of three and one-half feet. They did no damage. The first wave remained stationary for thirty-five minutes, later the water rose again to the same height and did not recede for half an hour.

Michigan City, Ind., June 6.—A tidal wave four feet high swept in from Lake Michigan today washing the top off docks for one-fourth of a mile from the harbor entrance. The wave was the heaviest on record here.

FISHERMEN'S CO-OPERATIVE CO.

Organized at Masonboro Sound Monday—Objects and Claims.

(Communicated.

Masonboro, June 6.—A large and enthusiastic meeting of the stockholders of the Fishermen's Co-Operative Packing Co., was held at Masonboro Sound Monday. The meeting was called to order by electing Mr. J. A. Hewlett as chairman of the meeting. The following directors were elected: E. W. Rogers, S. T. Keys, D. J. Fergus, Lewis Todd and J. T. Canady.

Immediately after adjournment of the meeting the board of directors met and elected G. W. Rogers, president; J. T. Canady, vice-president, and D. J. Fergus, secretary and treasurer, and general manager of the business of the company. The company has secured a large and commodious building on the southeast corner of Dock and Water streets, which is being fitted up for its headquarters. They will open business the latter part of this month.

The company has been formed by the fishermen who have heretofore furnished the four fish packers of Wilmington with fish. Owing to the low prices paid the fishermen by the packers, the fishermen have determined to do the packing business themselves. The fishermen wish the public to know the price of fish to the retailer or consumer will not be advanced, but they say they want the men who catch the fish to get the profits that the packers have heretofore made, as the packers have formed a fish trust and put only one buyer on the market to buy for the four firms.

IMPERIAL WEDDING IN BERLIN YESTERDAY

Future King of Germany Leads Duchess Cecelia to the Altar—Lutheran Ceremony Observed.

By Cable to The Morning Star.

Berlin, June 6.—Crown Prince Frederick William and Duchess Cecelia of Mecklenburg-Schwerin, were married in the palace chapel this afternoon while the clock on the plaza marked 5 and batteries here and in every garrison town in Prussia and in every sea where German warships floated began firing a twenty-one gun salute at the same moment. In the chapel one of the most distinguished assemblages that could be gathered in Europe, saw the simple wedding service of the Lutheran church.

The Crown Princess, for she was already Crown Princess by civil right came in on the arm of the Crown Prince. She was wearing a wreath of fresh myrtle on her head over which was a small crown of diamonds and rubies in a gold frame placed there by the Empress. A triangle of diamonds rested on the front of her low-cut bodice and round her neck was a necklace of large diamonds. The wedding dress was of Russian silver brocade, with a train four and a half yards in length and two and a quarter yards wide attached to the shoulders. Four maids of honor in dresses of pale blue silk, the Crown Princess' favorite color, carried the train and behind them walked two pages. The bridal veil was of old brussels lace. The Crown Prince wore the light blue uniform of the first foot guards with a major's insignia and his decorations. He carried his helmet in his hand.

Behind the bride and groom came the Empress on the arm of the Grand Duke of Mecklenburg - Schwerin, brother of the bride and the Emperor with the Grand Duchess Anastasia, mother of the bride. These and other members of the royal family stood on the right of the altar.

The choir sang "God Give His Angels Charge Concerning Thee," to music by Mendelssohn. This text was carved on the cradle of the Crown Prince. The congregation joined in singing from the programme the familiar hymn "Praise The Master."

Dr. Dryander, the court chaplain, with nine of the cathedral clergy standing near him, began the service. He spoke briefly on the beauty of love, the large responsibilities resting on the youthful pair, their need for the support of faith and spiritual vision. The pastor then asked his imperial highness if he took out of God's hand to have and to hold according to God's Word and will her Highness Cecelia?

The Crown Prince answered: "Yes." The same question was addressed to the duchess with the additional question of "and obey" tow hich she also answered "Yes." These were the only responses.

The rings were then exchanged and the bride and groom knelt while Dr. Dryander read the liturgical prayer closing the ceremony which had taken precisely twenty minutes.

Besides those present at the wedding, several hundred others had been invited to the reception, each person bowing to the Crown Prince and Crown Princess on either side of whom stood other royal personages. The dresses, jewels and uniforms contributed to a most brilliant picture.

After supper had been served, a torch light dance, a unique practice at weddings in the House of Hohenzollern for centuries, was performed in a modified form by twelve pages, the members of the royal family participating. This function came to a close after 9 o'clock, the wedding party having lasted more than four hours.

BEACH SERVICE IMPAIRED.

Fishermen Jabbed Hole in Cable With Gig Yesterday Morning.

Telephone communication between Wrightsville Beach and Wilmington was cut off all day yesterday, though Manager McManus and all the linemen he could command worked unceasingly from morning to night in locating and remedying the trouble. A fisherman in the sound early yesterday morning, presumably gigging flounders, jabbed a hole in the cable carrying the wires across the stream, letting in the water and grounding the circuit. The trouble worked a great hardship upon residents at the beach, who depend upon the telephone to do their marketing, but the accident was unavoidable, and the damage was repaired just as quickly as possible. Mr. McManus desires to issue a warning to all persons not to tamper with the property of the company as all violators will be vigorously prosecuted. The company has just installed a brand new equipment at the beach and is determined to keep the service first-class at all odds.

CONSTABLE VERSUS MAGISTRATE

Little Fisticuff Added to Gaiety of Nations on Princess Street.

A personal encounter between Constable W. B. Savage and Justice G. W. Bornemann occurred in the office of the last named yesterday morning as the result of a rather heated interchange of words about some magisterial business between the two gentlemen named. Mr. J. C. Bordeaux, Mr. E. L. Sleeper and Mrs. E. R. Hunter, friends of the officers, were present at the time and prevented any violence of a serious character. Constable Savage subsequently went before Justice Furlong and submitted to the assault upon Mr. Boremann, paying the cost of his transgression. The justice and constable later made friends and the trouble was dismissed between them.
